CDS Code: 1964733-0122242
Allocation Year: 2023-24

1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

The school did not implement Prop 28 funds in SY 23-24, however, it did plan for arts education programming that is currently being implemented in SY 24-25.

The grant will cover the salary of a dedicated computer science teacher who will instruct students in coding and graphic design during the regular school day. This course is part of the school's required curriculum, equipping students with valuable technical skills in high-demand fields. By merging creativity with technology, students will learn to build digital tools, create graphic content, and understand fundamental coding principles—preparing them for future career opportunities in the tech and design industries.

This program—focused on digital technology—offer an enriching avenue to explore their interests and passions. Through the orchestra, they gain cultural and artistic exposure, while the coding and design course enhances their problem-solving and creative thinking skills in a digital context. This initiative empower students by broadening their educational horizons and encouraging them to engage deeply with both the arts and technology.
